

COSMOPOLITAN CONSERVATIONISTS

Greening Modern Sydney

PEGGY JAMES

$39.95 • PB • ISBN 9781925003086

Cosmpolitan Conservationists tells the stories of the intertwined lives and writings of conservationists in early 20th-century Sydney. Their network featured:

David STEAD

Walter Burley GRIFFIN

Charles BEAN

Thistle HARRIS

Norman WEEKES

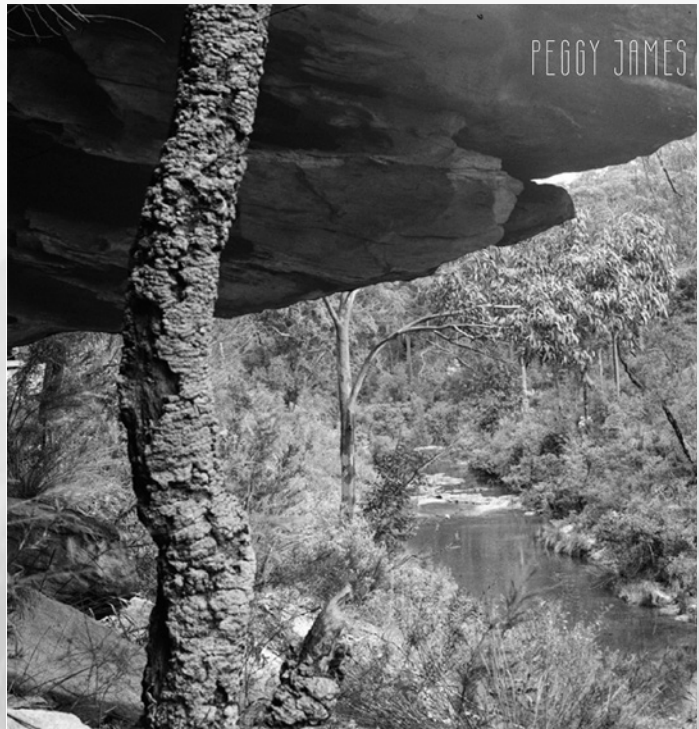

Marie BYLES

Myles DUNPHY

Annie WYATT

Each individual created some meaning in their life through their relationship with the environment, and as conservationists they helped to shape the urban landscape they shared and many places of beauty in Sydney.

Dr Peggy James is an environmental planner, and University Associate in the School of Humanities at the University of Tasmania.
